

Do you want to make a difference to the hauora (health & wellbeing) of the Hurunui community?

Hurunui Health Services Development Group (HBSDG) is creating a:

- local community group; and a
- health and wellbeing provider group to help guide the regions' health care services into the future.

Who do we need?

People are needed from a wide range of perspectives, including people that bring a diversity of age, ethnicity, area of residence and experience within the community.

How will the groups work?

- It is expected that groups will meet every 3-4 months (approximately 1 hour per meeting), either in person or online.
- Being a member is a voluntary role.
- The Chair of each group will also be a member of the other group, so they can share knowledge and work together to form solutions.
- A connection to the wider Canterbury health system will be through the Canterbury Clinical Network Rural Health Workstream.

What is the process from here?

To register your interest complete a form at one of the information sessions or download a form at ccn.health.nz (search 'Hurunui Health Services') and return by Friday 2 July.

The HBSDG will advise of the outcome by late July.

Once the two local groups are established, HBSDG will hand over the baton, having completed the work within their mandate.

Nomination Form:

Hurunui Hauora (Health & Wellbeing) Community & Provider Groups

We are seeking a broad variety of community members to be part of a community and provider group, to guide the future health services across the Hurunui. We need members from different age groups; parents; people from diverse cultural backgrounds including Māori, Pasifika, and migrant communities; people with lived experience of disabilities; and people who have experienced mental health concerns. A diversity of perspectives, connections, knowledge, and skills are welcomed.

Prospective members should be well-connected to the community, reliable, with the ability to actively contribute to a group environment and work constructively with others. It is expected groups will meet every 3-4 months (approx. 1 hour), either in person or online. Being a member is a voluntary role. Self-nominations are accepted.
